RESOLUTION Numbered 292
(series of 1994)

ENDORING THE ENACTMENT INTO LAW OF SENATE BILL
NO. 789 OR "THE ACT TO PROHIBIT THE EXPLOITATION AND DEGRADATION OF WOMEN IN PORNOGRAPHY AND TO PROVIDE PENALTIES FOR VIOLATION THEREOF".

WHEREAS, moral degradation through multi-media publication and production has become a cause of concern among various sectors of the community, particularly women's organizations and local government units, resulting in concerted efforts to firm up measures that will address the problem;

WHEREAS, identified among these measures is the enactment of anti-obscenity laws banning smut publications and motion picture productions;

WHEREAS, inspite of these laws, smut publications and productions continue to flood the local and national readership and viewing market of which the youth sector is essentially a parcel;

WHEREAS, most of these laws are construed in different perspectives, especially the definition of obscenity and pornography, where such variance obscures the determination of the appropriate penalties corresponding to unlawful acts;

WHEREAS, Senate Bill No. 789 provides a clear-cut definition of pornography or of what is offensive to public moral and dignity and qualifies certain acts leaning thereto as unlawful;

WHEREAS, the passage of this proposal will strengthen existing laws against obscenity or pornography, provide sufficient basis for expeditious investigation and prosecution of related cases, and curb the social detriments of these acts:

NOW THEREFORE, on motion of Hon. Tabanda and Hon. Yaranon, seconded by Hon. Claravall, Hon. Quitania and Hon. Yangot, be it

RESOLVED, as it is hereby resolved, to endorse the enactment into law of Senate Bill No. 789 or "the Act to Prohibit the Exploitation and Degradation of Women in Pornography and to Provide Penalties for Violation Thereof."

Unanimously adopted.
