RESOLUTION Numbered 054 ‘
(Series of 2010)

COMMENDING THE MEN AND WOMEN BEHIND THE HIGHLY SUCCESSFUL PANAGBENGA FLOWER FESTIVAL 2010 CELEBRATION

WHEREAS, the Panagbenga Flower Festival is held yearly during the month of February. “Panagbenga” is derived from a Kankanaey term meaning “a season of blooming”;

WHEREAS, now on its 15th year, this year’s Panagbenga celebration has once again topped the previous year’s celebration in terms of attendance, participation and activities, making the Panagbenga Flower Festival celebration one of the best if not the best festival in the Philippines;

WHEREAS, living up to the theme “Celebrating Fifteen years of Festival Excellence”, the festival has brought numerous culminating activities to entertain both local and foreign tourists and Baguio residents as well;

WHEREAS, in the article of Dexter A. See of the Manila Bulletin entitled “Panagbenga” sets standard for RP festivals it stated:

“The Department of Tourism (DoT) said the annual Baguio Flower Festival, popularly known as ‘Panagbenga’, has set a world-class festival and other places in the country could replicate to boost the country’s blooming tourism industry.

“Tourism industry stakeholders said Panagbenga could be considered a national festival as it continues to draw thousands of foreign and domestic tourists to visit this mountain resort city every year.

“The gauge in concluding that the Panagbenga is the ‘mother of all festivals’ in the country is the increasing number of crowd, quality of shows and flower-decorated floats.”

WHEREAS, the Department of Tourism said the Baguio’s annual event draws an average of one million local and foreign visitors who were dazzled by the various array of floats and excellent performance of the street dancers and marching bands; and

WHEREAS, there is a need also to commend the Baguio Flower Festival Foundation, Inc., (BFFFI), chaired by Mr. Anthony De Leon, the members and all the volunteers who in one way or the other contributed in making this year’s Panagbenga celebration a success:

NOW THEREFORE, on motion, duly seconded, be it

RESOLVED, as it is hereby resolved, to commend the men and women behind the highly successful Panagbenga Flower Festival 2010 Celebration.
