RESOLUTION Numbered 074 .
(Series of 2013)

COMMENDING THE PARTICIPATING SCHOOLS, COLLEGES, UNIVERSITIES, AND THE NATIONAL SERVICE TRAINING PROGRAM(NSTP) CORE IN THE CONDUCT OF THE MASSIVE GRAFFITI CLEAN-UP DRIVE HELD LAST 16 AND 17 FEBRUARY 2013 IN VARIOUS AREAS IN THE CITY OF BAGUIO.

WHEREAS, Ordinance Numbered 41, Series of 2008, or the Anti-Graffiti Code of Baguio City provides for certain prohibitions so/as to prevent graffiti or vandalism within the city;

WHEREAS, to ensure the enforcement of the ordinance, the City Mayor formed the Anti-Graffiti Task Force to come up with programs in response to the proliferation of graffiti and vandalism in public and private properties within the city, as well as to assist in the implementation of the said ordinance;

WHEREAS, despite the approval of the said ordinance and creation of the task force, vandalism, and graffiti painting activities, walls, streets, and properties both private and the public have been stained continuously;

WHEREAS, during a meeting with the task force and with other private institutions, the City Mayor ordered a massive graffiti clean-up drive in preparation for the Panagbenga Festival and the influx of tourists to the city, from which the private institutions immediately volunteered their support through manpower from the National Service Training Program (NSTP) Core;

WHEREAS, the massive clean-up drive covered streets, and properties mostly situated within the central business district and other areas that include: Rimando Road to Aurora Hill area, City limit going to La Trinidad, New Lucban, T. Alonzo, Caguioa area, Harrison Road to Baguio City National High School, UP Baguio area until BGH area, Harrison Road to Bokawkan, Happy Homes, Camdas, Trancoville, and Tabora area including Private Road, Salud Mitra, General Luna to Session Road, Assumption Road to Abanao Road;

WHEREAS, the participating schools/colleges/universities in the graffiti clean-up include: Saint Louis University, BSBT College, DATA Center College of the Philippines, STI College, University of the Cordilleras, Baguio College of Technology, Pines City Colleges, Baguio City Colleges, Baguio College Academy, AMA Computer College, National Institute of Information Technology, GMS Technology, University of Baguio, the Philippine Women's University, and the schools under the Department of Education;

WHEREAS, some of the schools, apart from providing for the manpower also provided for the needed paints and the needed materials for the clean-up drive;

WHEREAS, the participation of the private institutions are very much appreciated by the city government in its effort to have a clean and orderly city;

WHEREAS, the project undertaken last 16 and 17 February 2013 serves as the start of a strong partnership between the city and these private institutions with regard to graffiti obliteration, as the program is intended to be a continuing project for the schools, the government, the task force, and the barangays so as to sustain the areas re-painted and cleaned; and

WHEREAS, there is a need to encourage the participation of more institutions so as to effectively sustain the project as well as to implement the provisions of the anti-graffiti code:

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of all, be it

RESOLVED, as it is hereby resolved, to commend the participating schools, colleges, universities, and the National Service Training Program (NSTP) Core in the conduct of the massive graffiti clean-up drive held last 16 and 17 February 2013 in various areas in the City of Baguio.

RESOLVED, FURTHER, that copies of this resolution be forwarded to the schools, colleges, and universities for their information.

Unanimously adopted.
