RESOLUTION Numbered 099
(Series of 2009)

POLICIES AND GUIDELINES ON THE USE OF THE FINANCIAL ASSISTANCE PROVIDED TO THE BAGUIO GENERAL HOSPITAL AND MEDICAL CENTER (BGHMC) AND AUTHORIZING THE HONORABLE CITY MAYOR TO ENTER INTO A MEMORANDUM OF AGREEMENT WITH THE BGHMC EMBODYING THE POLICIES AND GUIDELINES.

WHEREAS, Dr. Manuel V. Factora, Medical Center Chief, Baguio General Hospital and Medical Center (BGHMC), in his letter dated 26 January 2009, requested that the BGHMC and the City Government of Baguio come out with a Memorandum of Agreement on the implementation of the program on medical assistance given to indigent patients confined in the BGHMC;

WHEREAS, the Committee on Social Services, Women and Urban Poor chaired by Hon. Betty Lourdes F. Tabanda in its 2nd Indorsement dated 02 March 2009 recommended that the financial assistance provided to the BGH for the legislative development funds be subject to the policies and guidelines under Department of Health (DOH) Department Order No. 2007-0057 and that the Honorable City Mayor be authorized to enter into a Memorandum of Agreement with the BGHMC embodying these guidelines:

NOW THEREFORE, on motion of Hon. Tabanda, Hon. Weygan and Hon. Chan-Rondez, seconded by Hon. Sembrano and Hon. Aliping, be it

RESOLVED, as it is hereby resolved, that the financial assistance provided to the Baguio General Hospital and Medical Center (BGHMC) for the legislative development funds is subject to the policies and guidelines of Department of Health (DOH) Department Order No. 2007-0057.

RESOLVED FURTHER, that, specifically, the following policies and guidelines shall be implemented, to wit:

1. the medical assistance shall be only for indigent patients;
2. the patient must be a resident of Baguio City;
3. the assistance shall be extended to patients who are confined at the charity ward of the Baguio General Hospital and Medical Center (BGHMC). It covers drugs, medicines, medical services, professional fees, laboratory tests, ECG, x-ray, surgery, and/or other medical and laboratory procedures directly provided by BGHMC; and
4. for out-patients and emergency patient indigents, the funds may cover the same expenses as the above, but limited only to what is directly provided by BGHMC.

Procedure:

1. The Councilor/Official shall identify and recommend through a letter the indigent and deserving patient who may avail of the medical assistance.
2. The letter, which shall be addressed to the medical center chief of the Baguio General Hospital and Medical Center (BGHMC), should indicate the maximum amount the patient can avail of under the fund.
3. The letter should be accompanied by:
 - a. Proof that the patient is a resident of Baguio City; and
 - b. Proof that the patient is an indigent.

In emergency cases, the above requirements may be waived or submitted later.

4. The BGHMC, through its credit and collection office, shall furnish each official, on a quarterly basis, the list of patients who have availed of the medical assistance program including the amount of assistance extended for monitoring and recording services.

Resolution Numbered 099, Series of 2009, page 2.

RESOLVED FURTHERMORE, to authorize the Honorable Reinaldo A. Bautista Jr., City Mayor, to enter into a Memorandum of Agreement with the BGHMC embodying these policies and guidelines.

Adopted.

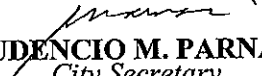

Hon. Balisong, Hon. Tabora, Hon. Cariño, Hon. Alangsab and Hon. De Vera were out of the Session Hall during the deliberation and voting.
