RESOLUTION Numbered 141
(Series of 2012)

EXPRESSING DEEPEST SYMPATHIES AND HEARTFELT
CONDOLENCES OF BAGUIO CITY TO THE BEREAVED FAMILY OF
THE LATE CECILE CARINO AFABLE WHO PASSED AWAY ON 12 JUNE 2012.

WHEREAS, the late Cecile Cariño Afable was born in Baguio City on 11 November 1918. She studied at the Baguio Central School and at the Mountain Province High School (now Baguio City National High School). Then she took up Philosophy at the University of the Philippines where she was tagged as the first female Ibaloi to be admitted at the country's state run premier university;

WHEREAS, she joined her elder siblings, Mr. Sinai and Mr. Oseo Cariño Hamada, in founding the Baguio Midland Courier when Baguio City was starting to rebuild from the ruins of the World War II, which continued to be a voice of the people until today;

WHEREAS, she was very active in community service and rendered unconditional passion in helping the women of Baguio City and of indigenous groups. She served as a Capitan in her own barangay, Padre Burgos; further as President and Board Member of the Girl Scouts of the Philippines, the Young Women Christian Association, the Baguio Women's Club, and the first BIBAK assemblies. She was also the first volunteer Girl Scout Executive of the then Baguio Mountain Girl Scout Council;

WHEREAS, she was also a member of the founding board of the Baguio-Mountain Province Museum and co-founder of the Baguio Regreening Movement which continue to promote Baguio City and the region in environmental and historical concerns;

WHEREAS, together with former Vice Mayor Virginia De Guia and the late Engr. Leonora Paraan San Agustin, they were labeled as the "three witches of Baguio" for their untiring efforts in establishing several advocacies for the social, cultural, and moral benefits and developments of the community of Baguio City and neighboring areas; and

WHEREAS, as friendly, fair and fearless as she was, and named as the Grand Dame of Baguio Media, she shared her ideas without hesitation towards continuing education and people empowerment;

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion, duly seconded, be it

RESOLVED, as it is hereby resolved, to express deepest sympathies and heartfelt condolences of Baguio City to the bereaved family of the late Cecile Cariño Afable who passed away on 12 June 2012.

Unanimously adopted.
