RESOLUTION Numbered 169
(Series of 2008)

RECOMMENDING TO THE HONORABLE CITY MAYOR FOR APPROPRIATE CONSIDERATION AND ACCEPTANCE AS A PRIORITY PROJECT THE PUTTING UP OF COLLAPSIBLE BOOTHS AT THE BAGUIO CONVENTION CENTER TO SERVE AS LIVELIHOOD DISPLAY CENTERS PURPOSELY TO EXHIBIT FINISHED PRODUCTS AND OUTPUTS OF CONCLUDED LIVELIHOOD SEMINARS OF COOPERATIVES, NONGOVERNMENTAL ORGANIZATIONS, BARANGAYS AND OTHER SIMILAR ASSOCIATIONS

WHEREAS, it has always been a customary practice of cooperatives, nongovernmental organizations, socially active associations, government line agencies, such as the Department of Trade and Industry (DTI) and the Technical Education & Skills Development Authority (TESDA), among others, and now also barangays are greatly encouraged, to conduct livelihood training seminars designed to equip interested constituents and enterprising individuals and volunteers with the know-how of producing viable products as a means to supplement their income;

WHEREAS, marketing is one of the most important aspect of business and even more especially for fledging enterprises, such as the livelihood training seminars conducted by the aforementioned groups, entailing the advertisement and display of products, and their possible sale, where people may have a glimpse and an idea of what these activities and these hopeful people have produced;

WHEREAS, most of these livelihood training seminars rely on the showcasing of their newly-found products or services to the public in order for them to be tested feasible by customers and consumers, or to employers who might be in need of their skills and talents, through an avenue of exhibition which this Resolution wishes to provide;

WHEREAS, start-up industries in the micro-, small- and/or medium-enterprises category do not usually have the capital in order to afford expensive commercial spaces for their fledging businesses; through the Baguio Convention Center Livelihood Display Center, newly-found products and services may be displayed, observed and evaluated through actual demonstration of use, and tested to determine if continued production, improvement and development is feasible:

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion of Hon. Sembrano, Hon. Balisong and Hon. Cariño, seconded by Hon. Aliping and Hon. Balajadia, be it

RESOLVED, as it is hereby resolved, to recommend to the Honorable City Mayor for appropriate consideration and acceptance as a priority project the putting up of collapsible booths at the Baguio Convention Center to serve as Livelihood Display Centers purposely to exhibit finished products and outputs of concluded livelihood seminars of cooperatives, nongovernmental organizations, barangays and other similar associations.

RESOLVED FURTHER, to task the City Administrator, in his capacity as manager of the Baguio Convention Center, to formulate the implementing guidelines relative to the proper fund sourcing and use of the livelihood display center, subject to existing policy on government resource and facility utilization.

Adopted.
