RESOLUTION Numbered 171-
(Series of 2013)

EXPRESSING DEEPEST SYMPATHIES AND HEARTFELT
CONDOLENCES OF THE OFFICIALDOM AND CONSTITUENCY OF THE
CITY OF BAGUIO TO THE BEREAVED FAMILY OF THE LATE
HONORABLE JUDGE HEILIA S. MALLARE-PHILLIPPS WHO JOINED
OUR CREATOR ON 15 JUNE 2013 AT THE AGE OF 85.

WHEREAS, Hon. Judge Heilia S. Mallare-Phillipps was born in Iloilo City on 21 January 1928. She is the daughter of Ms. Leontina Y. Santiago and Hon. Gil R. Mallare, former City Mayor of the City of Baguio. She lived in different parts of the country due to her father's job as Engineer, the reason why she took her elementary education in three different schools: in Ilocos Norte, Albay, and Iloilo City. She finished her elementary education in six years instead of the usual seven years at that time, and high school for only three years under an accelerated setup. She finished her pre-law course at Siliman University in 1948 with Highest Honors and her Bachelor of Laws at the University of Sto. Tomas and graduated as Cum Laude in 1952. She took and passed the bar examinations in the same year with a rating of 88.25%.

WHEREAS, Hon. Judge Phillipps began her career in the Judiciary as Municipal Judge of Sablan, Benguet, on 18 September 1960 up to 22 September 1972. She was appointed as the Presiding Judge of the Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court for Baguio City and Benguet from 23 September 1972 to 17 January 1973, and designated as Regional Trial Court Executive Judge of La Trinidad, Benguet, for several years. She served the judiciary for 37½ years until her retirement in 1998;

WHEREAS, Hon. Judge Phillipps was an active lay leader of the United Church of Christ in the Philippines (UCCP), both in the local and national levels; played the organ for the past 60 years in the morning English Worship and Vesper Services at UCCP Baguio. She was a Missionary of the Presbyterian Church for three months at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, USA, and had other missionary offers at Birmingham, England, and Boston, Massachusetts, USA, but opted to stay, work, and live in the Philippines;

WHEREAS, Hon. Judge Phillipps was a dedicated socio-civic leader in the City of Baguio and was elected president of different women's civic organizations. She was the first chairperson of the Balikatan sa Kaunlaran, the umbrella of all women's organizations in the City of Baguio and held the position for 25 years since its inception in 1977; the chairperson of the Philippine Military Academy Host Parents Association for 19 years; the president of the Young Christian Women's Association (YWCA), Baguio City, which upon her leadership, the association was able to acquire a lot at Harrison Road where the YWCA building now stands; she was the former President of the Soroptimist International Club, Baguio City Chapter, a club exclusively for women based on one-woman only per profession. She was a member of the Board of the Girl Scouts of the Philippines – Benguet Chapter, the Philippine Mental Health Association – Baguio City, the Baguio Women's Club, the Society of Outstanding Citizens of Baguio (SOCOB), and was the President of the National Christian Women's Association of the United Church of Christ in the Philippines;

WHEREAS, Hon. Judge Phillipps also loved to teach, having taught in several schools from 1952 to 1983: at the Eastern Philippine Colleges (now Baguio Central University), at the Baguio Colleges Foundation (now University of the Cordilleras), and at the St. Louis University, and

WHEREAS, by God's grace, she had continuously lived in faith, witness, and service in church and in the community through her socio-civic involvements, serving in the Lord's vineyard until she was called to God's heavenly home:

NOW, THEREFORE, on motion, duly seconded, be it

RESOLVED, as it is hereby resolved, to express deepest sympathies and heartfelt condolences of the officialdom and constituency of the City of Baguio to the bereaved family of the late Honorable Judge Heilia S. Mallare-Phillipps who joined our Creator on 15 June 2013 at the age of 85.

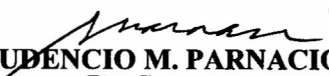

Unanimously adopted.
